

Department of Economics: Opportunities for the undergraduate majors

For Use with ALL Catalogue Years 2006-07 or LATER

This check is for INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY. Please refer to the UCI General Catalogue.

Specialization in International Issues and Economics

Students in any of the three Economics majors may complete the specialization in "International Issues and Economics." Admission to the specialization requires advance approval by the Economics Department. Students interested in pursuing the specialization must complete an application available from the Department office (SSPB 3223) after the completion of Econ 20A-B. The application must be filed NO LATER than the end of junior year.

Requirements for the Specialization:

A. International Studies Lower-Division Core Courses:

_____ IntlSt 11 Origins of Global Interdependence

_____ IntlSt 14 International Relations

_____ IntlSt 13 Global Economy (same as Econ 13)

B. THREE International Economics elective courses chosen from:

Economics 148I-J-K, 161B-C, 162A, 163, 164A, and 169

C. THREE International Breadth electives (only ONE may be lower-division) chosen from:

Int'l Studies 111A, 112A, 120, 121, 122, 123, 179; Political Science 141A, B, C, D, 143D, 143E;

Environmental Analysis & Design E100 (when topic is Int'l Environmental Issues); History 21A, B, C, 101

Additional courses may be added--for up-to-date information check: <http://www.economics.uci.edu/>

NOTE: *NO MORE THAN 2 courses may overlap between the major and the specialization requirements.

*Students pursuing this specialization MAY NOT double major in International Studies.

*The Department encourages students to take the electives for this specialization while studying in the Education Abroad Program (EAP): <http://www.cie.uci.edu/> (Student Services II 1100; 824-6343).

Honors Program in Economics

Students in any of the three Economics majors may complete the Honors Program in Economics. Students in the Honors Program must complete the two-quarter Economics Honors Colloquium (Economics H190A-B, which satisfies the upper-division writing requirement) and an honors thesis.

Students who wish to enroll in the honors program in economics must have an advisor for their senior thesis. The advisor must be a professor, instructor, or faculty affiliated with the economics department. It is your responsibility to find a topic and an advisor. We encourage you to visit the faculty during their office hours, talk to them about your research interests, and build an educational relationship with them.

Admission Requirements:

- 3.4 GPA or better in upper-division Economics courses and an overall GPA of 3.2 or better
- Econ 100A-B-C and 123A-123B or 122A-122B completed by spring quarter of junior year
- Undergraduates seeking admission to the program must apply NO LATER than the spring quarter of their junior year. Applications are available at the Economics Department Office (SSPB 3223).

Requirements for the Honors Economics:

Students in the Honors Program must complete an honors thesis during the two-quarter Honors Colloquium:

_____ Econ H190A design the project, conduct the preliminary research, and begin to write the paper

_____ Econ H190B complete the research project, write the honors thesis, and present the results

Completion of the program will satisfy the upper-division writing requirement.